

Whether you ski or go ice diving, snowkite or airboard, jump or snowboard—it's apparent you can pretty much do anything here if it involves snow, even wearing skis and pulled by horses. For more hints (tired yet?), take this Inside Scoop with you.

travel: delighting in the spirit of adventure • a vacation from home to explore places that are not your home • knowing life is different, knowing this is a joy of travel • enjoying the journey, not just the destination • a privilege best used with patience, humour and curiosity • fun • coming home with great tales •

The Montreux Jazz Festival is world-famous, held early July on the shores of Lake Geneva. Over the years its musical offerings have been broadened to other artists and genres; a mecca for music lovers. Trivia: Deep Purple's song Smoke on the Water is about the band seeing casino burn down during a 1971 concert.

Maritime Travel

Inside Scoop: Switzerland

Know before you go: travel isn't just your destination, it's also the journey

Being landlocked—set amid France, Italy, Germany, Liechtenstein and Austria—Switzerland is so easy to get to from other parts of Europe. Plan ahead for benefits such as securing your accommodation and in-country travel. Tips:

- Be realistic: we know you want value for money in balancing choices and amenities with budgets. No matter what, aim to relax and enjoy. Special requests are requests only for such upgrades as a room with a view or quiet courtyard.
- Each person must have a valid passport www.cic.gc.ca/english/passport/index.asp. Keep separate photocopies of its ID page or snap a cell photo.
- Check with your cell provider for packages. Internet access is widely available.
- Currency is the Swiss franc. Banks change money for a fee, ATMs and merchants take Canadian debit and credit cards. Log the dates you'll be away with your bank and credit card companies. Some shops and restaurants also take Euros.
- Take adapter plugs (voltage converter) for 220 volt outlets.
- As in any country, if you don't speak the languages, just try—people often go out of their way to help. Take LeGrow's Travel's Inside Scoop: Popular Phrases for help with 3 (German, French, Italian) of the country's 4 (Romansh) official languages.
- Foods you must try include a raclette with melted cheese, potatoes and sides, fondue and (again melted cheese) yummy rösti—a crispy grated fried potato delight, often with onion, herbs and/or cheese on top.

Above all, travel with a positive attitude—patience and a spirit of adventure will carry you through any experience!

Small in Size, BIG in Activities

The Swiss Alps mountain range span the central south area, some 60% of the country (mainland Nova Scotia, minus Cape Breton). Whether you intend to only ski, walk around one of more than 1,500 lakes or aim to pack in cheese manufacturing visits. Besides watches and annual Christmas markets in many towns and cities, find cool gifts at Victorinox's Swiss Knife Valley Visitor Centre in Brunnen. Book ahead to make your own pocket knife (pack in a checked bag). The Swiss Camera Museum in Vevey showcases the history of photography. Travel plans may be scuttled by weather with poor visibility. If you have something booked, check weather reports before heading out that day.

Country Travel Made Easy

Travelling is about as easy as getting around a large city: the public system includes trains, lake steamers, buses and city transportation. You can travel through the Alps, St. Moritz, Lugano and Zermatt, many towns connected by trains and extensive bus networks even to the most out-of-the-way find. You can easily connect with other countries trains. Ask your counsellor about Swiss SBB rail and the Rail Europe/Eurail passes: a Swiss Transfer Ticket and Swiss Card (only for visitors) provide round-trip travel from any Swiss airport or border town to a destination in the country for less than many other tickets—book and reserve in advance. A very very very handy service is SBB's Fast Baggage program that delivers luggage from many train stations to dozens of cities (for a fee); check your bags, skis, snowboards, sleds or strollers etc. in and collect them at your destination.

Buy insurance that covers your activities: Ask your counsellor about Maritime Travel medical and cancellation/interruption insurance.

Booked Accommodation Yet?

Not a skiing fanatic? Consider a couple of nights in a monastery. Seriously. It's a lovely way to experience nature all around you. Depending on the site's offerings, visitors decide whether to participate in services, usually taking meals with other guests and monastery members. Some offer silence, such as Neuchâtel's Abbaye de Fontaine-André. Or stay at a traditional Swiss hotel. For urban flair, try a "design and lifestyle" hotel. If travelling with your family, consider a ranch, a camping vacation or farm—you can sleep on a hay bed (maybe just the kids...) Or rent an Alpine hut, stay in a cornfield open air hotel or try an agritourism experience.

Your Airline

Sign up online for the airline(s) email/text flight notifications as your flight could be delayed (the plane might be flying in). Transport Canada advises, "Travellers should arrive at the airport earlier than usual, exercise patience and contact their airline for further information on their flight(s)." Airline staff are on duty some 2-3hrs prior: due to staffing/security, check-in closes 1hr before departure. If late, you're not entitled to board (or a refund). Unless booked ahead, seats are first-come first. Many airlines have reciprocal "code-shares;" your ticket is for one airline, you travel on another's plane. For carry-on and check-in baggage, check with your airline as size/weight restrictions vary.

Tip: Those envelopes in hotels for writing letters? Take 2: in one tuck in receipts for costs there, receipts for items coming home in the other, put a rounded-up amount on the outside so you know what's spent (handy at customs).

Also see Maritime Travel's Inside Scoop: Returning to Canada. Don't buy or accept anything suspect or that may be taken from you at customs: drugs, plants, meat/animal products or endangered species parts. Cities or Alps, Rural or Alps, See the Alps Zurich and Geneva are the two largest cities, each with charms, such as Zurich's Blinde Kuh restaurant for dining and culture in the dark. Basel is a city in three corners of three countries (with France and Germany), a city with 40 museums, notable architecture and an annual Fasnacht (Carnival) that starts with a procession—at 4am. South east of Basel, specialty tours (ask your counsellor) include hiking the Senda Sursilvana in autumn, panning for gold in the Rhine River and mountain biking in Tujetsch, Upper Rhine Valley. In winter, when crossing the Oberlap Pass is closed between Disentis and Sedrun, it's a walkers world amid the calm. In the centre of the country, Luzern is a top destination with paddle steamers cruising Lake Lucerne, walking trails and the Rigi Mountain cableway with breathtaking views. See the work of artists such as Paul Klee at the Museum Rosengart.

If you're a ski fiend, favourite spots are carved into your memory. Besides more popular areas, consider less common and quirky sites: Disentis-Sedrun offers freeriders ideal conditions away from busy slopes. Bar Nevada is a meeting place for music and sun lovers with terrace seats (and 15 recliners, no you can't stay overnight) plunked in the middle of ski land. At an altitude of 2,176 meters, get there by cable railway and chair lift. Le Kuklos ("revolving" in Greek) Panorama Restaurant on La Berneuse connects two mountains (Tour Mayen, la Tour d'Ai); you can see Eiger's north face and Mont Blanc from your seat. Bring your bathing suit for heated open air hot tubs at Jatzhütte, Davos (the "fun" mountain). Love people watching? Then head to St. Moritz's snow bar. Gstaad offers terrific mountain views (it's not like the others don't), a panorama of Berneuse, Valaisian, Vaud and Freiburg Alps. Stay overnight in a Cabane des Violettes hut (Crans-Montana) and party (serious partygoers) at Zermatt's Restaurant Fluhalp. From Berghotel Hahnenmoospass, take its 3km toboggan run (as a good Canadian) from the pass to Geils, then surf the Grand Masta Snowboard Park. Leukerbad's Bergrestaurant Rinderhutte & Schneebar offers an overnight holiday camp with various sized rooms (with some 50 beds), showers with board and half-board available. The Yeti Park play and adventure area for children is next to the Restaurant Risti, Engelberg. Besides great restaurants, Montreux offers culinary cruises. Montreux-Veytaux's Chillon Castle sits on a rock, this "water castle" the most visited historic building in Switzerland. With vaults and 14thC art, the complex of 25 buildings commands this gorgeous setting.

Night skiing is usually offered certain evenings. Also check out Engelberg's wild snowXpark. Malbi Park in Malbun offers excellent sessions for children (as do many other areas). The modern cogwheel Jungfrau railway climbs to Eiger Glacier station restaurant and polar dog kennels. Through Eiger tunnel, enjoy spectacular scenery on the way to the highest railway station in Europe. Jungfrauoch Mountain, more than 11,000 feet up, is called the Top of Europe: view a super long ice stream and Ice Palace. Glacier Express is a private panoramic railway trip from St. Moritz or Davos to Zermatt through the heart of the Alps and charming towns with vistas (if you like counting, some 291 bridges and 91 tunnels): Ask your counsellor as it's a discounted add-on with regular train travel. Also try airboarding, snow bikes, Marbach's ski-jump, the toboggan run from the Faulhorn via Bussalp to Grindelwald, snowtubing, the Olympic bob run in St. Moritz, skating, skiing while being pulled by a horse, snowkiting or ice diving in Les Mosses. Tip: If you're not a skier or snowboarder, some 180 schools provide professional snow-sport instruction at all levels in Swiss Snow Kids Village and Swiss Snow League uniform program.

Oh look we're out of space, no room to talk about après-ski...
